1 WHEREAS, Nowruz, meaning "new day", is the traditional 2 Iranian New Year celebrated on the spring equinox and marks the 3 beginning of the year on the Persian calendar, a holiday observed for 4 more than 3,000 years by hundreds of millions of people across Iran,
5 Central Asia, the Middle East, and the diaspora of Middle Eastern 6 communities around the world; and

7 WHEREAS, Iranian Americans and members of the Iranian

1 diaspora, including many Coloradans, celebrate Nowruz and contribute 2 greatly to the cultural, economic, and civic life of communities across the 3 United States and the state of Colorado; and

4 WHEREAS, Nowruz is a celebration of renewal, hope, and the 5 rebirth of nature, symbolizing the promise that each new year can bring 6 greater peace, prosperity, and justice; and

7 WHEREAS, The people of Iran continue to face profound 8 challenges to their fundamental civil and human rights, including 9 restrictions on freedom of expression, freedom of assembly, freedom of 10 religion, and equality under the law; and

11 WHEREAS, The Women, Life, Freedom movement that began in 12 September 2022 has become a global call for gender equality, human 13 dignity, and fundamental civil rights, highlighting long-standing
14 discrimination against women and girls in Iran--including legal inequality
15 and restrictions on personal freedom--and reflecting the extraordinary
16 courage of Iranian women and girls who demand equality and bodily 17 autonomy; and

18 WHEREAS, Students, journalists, activists, workers, and ordinary 19 citizens across Iran have risked their safety and their lives in peaceful 20 demonstrations, demanding democratic freedoms, bodily autonomy, and 21 basic civil rights even as escalating conflict and violence in the region 22 have placed millions of civilians at risk and caused devastating harm to 23 families and communities; and

24 WHEREAS, The Colorado General Assembly recognizes Nowruz
25 as a celebration of renewal, resilience, and hope for Middle Eastern 26 communities across Colorado and the world; now, therefore,

27 Be It Resolved by the Senate of the Seventy-fifth General Assembly
28 of the State of Colorado, the House of Representatives concurring herein:

29 That the Colorado General Assembly:

30 (1) Recognizes the celebration of Nowruz and extends its warmest 31 wishes for a year of renewal, hope, and peace to Iranian communities in 32 Colorado and around the world;

33 (2) Affirms its solidarity with the Iranian people in their ongoing

1 struggle for fundamental civil rights, democratic freedoms, and equality
2 under the law;

3 (3) Recognizes the courage and leadership of Iranian women and 4 girls and the global call for dignity embodied in the words "Women, Life, 5 Freedom";

6 (4) Mourns the lives of civilians, especially children, lost to 7 violence and war, calling for the protection of civilians, schools, and 8 essential community institutions; and

9 (5) Expresses its hope that the spirit of Nowruz--a new day--will 10 bring a future in which all people in Iran can live with equality, freedom, 11 justice, and the full protection of their civil and human rights.
