These impacts result from continuing a program scheduled to repeal and reflect the extension of current revenue and spending levels.

Summary of Legislation

The bill continues the Colorado Securities Act for 11 years, until September 1, 2037. The act is currently scheduled to repeal on September 1, 2026. The act includes the Division of Securities and the Securities Board in the Department of Regulatory Agencies (DORA). In addition, the bill makes the following changes:

- specifies that a deficiency letter or communication related to a deficiency letter is not subject to the Colorado Open Records Act;
- updates language to be gender neutral;
- clarifies that investment advisers or investment adviser representatives must be licensed, with certain exceptions; and
- requires the Executive Director of DORA to consult with the Securities Board when appointing the Securities Commissioner.

Under current law, the Securities Commissioner may issue a cease-and-desist order or conduct a summary license suspension by issuing an order to show cause as to why the order or suspension should not be issued, and a hearing is scheduled with the Securities Board or an administrative law judge. The bill instead allows the commissioner to issue a preliminary cease-and-desist order or summary license-suspension order, and establishes a hearing process to determine the outcome of the order, if requested by the person subject to the order.

Background

The Division of Securities regulates securities, licenses securities firms and professions, and enforces the requirements of the Colorado Securities Act. In FY 2023-24, the division licensed 1,873 broker-dealer firms, 254,030 broker-dealer sales representatives, 3,309 federal covered investment advisers, 774 state-licensed investment advisers and 16,119 investment adviser representatives. In addition, 135 securities offerings exceeding $53 billion were registered with the division. Enforcement actions resulted in 3 license revocations, 15 administrative or civil referrals, and 4 criminal referrals. The sunset report for the Act was completed in 2025.

Continuing Program Impacts

Based on the average of the last two fiscal years, DORA is expected to have revenue of $6.5 million and expenditures of $6.0 million, and 28.0 FTE to administer the Division of Securities and the Securities Board. If this bill is enacted, current revenue and expenditures will continue for the program starting in FY 2026-27. This continuing revenue is subject to the state TABOR limits.

If this bill is not enacted, the program will enter a one-year wind-down period and then end on September 1, 2027, one year after its statutory repeal date. If allowed to repeal, state revenue and expenditures will decrease starting in FY 2027-28 by the amounts shown in Table 1.

Additional impacts from changes under the bill area described in the State Expenditures section below.

State Expenditures

The bill increases workload for the Division of Securities in DORA to update cease-and-desist, summary license suspension, and hearing procedures to align with the bill's requirements. No change in appropriations is required.

Local Government

Local government investment pool trusts must be registered with the division; thus, the bill continues existing workload for local governments to ensure this registration occurs. In FY 2023-24, there were three trusts registered with the division.

Effective Date

The bill was signed into law by the Governor on May 29, 2026, and takes effect on August 12, 2026, assuming no referendum petition is filed. It applies to cease-and-desist orders and summary suspension orders issued on or after the bill takes effect.
